

Architectural Engineering Institute Presents

BRIDGE THE GAP

Gain real-world project experience

Practice collaborating across disciplines while balancing design responsibilities.

Enhance your professional network

Meet and work with industry professionals, academics, and students from across the nation.

Learn technical skills from various disciplines

Gain exposure to digital tools, design calculators, and graphics software.

Participants must be students enrolled in a collegiate or university program at the time of the event. Graduate and undergraduate students are welcome.

