

ASCE Authorship, Originality, and Copyright Transfer Agreement for Books

Publication Title: _____

Manuscript Title: _____

Author(s) – Names (required), e-mail addresses (required), and postal addresses (optional) of all authors

I. Authorship Responsibility

To protect the integrity of authorship, only people who have significantly contributed to the research or project and manuscript preparation shall be listed as coauthors. The corresponding author attests to the fact that anyone named as a coauthor has seen the final version of the manuscript and has agreed to its submission for publication. Deceased persons who meet the criteria for coauthorship shall be included, with a footnote reporting date of death. No fictitious name shall be given as an author or coauthor. An author who submits a manuscript for publication accepts responsibility for having properly included all, and only, qualified coauthors.

I, the corresponding author, confirm that the authors listed on the manuscript are aware of their authorship status and qualify to be authors on the manuscript according to the guidelines above.

II. Originality of Content

ASCE respects the copyright ownership of other publishers. ASCE requires authors to obtain permission from the copyright holder to reproduce any material that (1) they did not create themselves and/or (2) has been previously published, to include the authors' own work for which copyright was transferred to an entity other than ASCE. Each author has a responsibility to identify materials that require permission by including a citation in the figure or table caption or in extracted text. Materials re-used from an open access repository or in the public domain must still include a citation and URL, if applicable. At the time of submission, authors must provide verification that the copyright owner will permit re-use by a commercial publisher in print and electronic forms with worldwide distribution. Regardless of acceptance, no manuscript or part of a manuscript will be published by ASCE without proper verification of all necessary permissions to re-use. ASCE accepts no responsibility for verifying permissions provided by the author. Any breach of copyright will result in retraction of the published manuscript.

I, the corresponding author, confirm that all of the content, figures (drawings, charts, photographs, etc.), and tables in the submitted work are either original work created by the authors listed on the manuscript or work for which permission to re-use has been obtained from the creator. For any figures, tables, or text blocks exceeding 100 words from a journal article or 500 words from a book, written permission from the copyright holder has been obtained and supplied with the submission.

III. Copyright Transfer

ASCE requires that authors or their agents assign copyright to ASCE for all original content published by ASCE. The author(s) warrant(s) that the above-cited manuscript is the original work of the author(s) and has never been published in its present form.

The undersigned, with the consent of all authors, hereby transfers, to the extent that there is copyright to be transferred, the exclusive copyright interest in the above-cited manuscript (subsequently called the “work”) in this and all subsequent editions of the work (to include closures and errata), and in derivatives, translations, or ancillaries, in English and in foreign translations, in all formats and media of expression now known or later developed, including electronic, to the American Society of Civil Engineers subject to the following:

- No proprietary right other than copyright is claimed by ASCE.
- If the manuscript is not accepted for publication by ASCE or is withdrawn by the author prior to publication (online or in print), this transfer will be null and void.
- Authors may post a PDF of the ASCE-published version of their work on their employers’ Intranet with password protection. The following statement must appear with the work: “This material may be downloaded for personal use only. Any other use requires prior permission of the American Society of Civil Engineers.”

I, the corresponding author, acting with consent of all authors listed on the manuscript, hereby transfer copyright of the work as indicated above to the American Society of Civil Engineers.
